CONGRESSMAN WITHERSPOON'S ACT NEARLY CAUSED PANIC.

THE SENATE TROUBLES

Rushing to Finish Business—Rivers and Harbors Appropriation Bill Will Be Vigorously Opposed.

(By W. C. Van Cleve.)

Washington, D. C., July 25.—Samuel A. Witherspoon of Mississippi, came near starting a panic in the house membership a few days ago when it leaked out that he had refused to receive eighty some dollars due him as salary.

When Mr. Witherspoon came to congress, he was detained at home for four days closing up his private business. There is an old law, long since gone into harmless obscurity, which declares that any member absenting himself from the sessions of the house on private business shall not draw pay for the time he is away. The law has long since been disregarded and many perhaps were not aware of its existence, so when his action became known, Mr. Witherspoon did not know whether he would be in good standing or not.

Witherspoon is a Modest Man.

He is a very modest man, and it developed that he had kept it a secret for a long time and was not attempting to embarrass his fellow members, so he was promptly forgiven. It served to remind the congress, however, that if the rule were rigidly applied some few of the members would have a very much reduced pay check.

The Senate Breathes Easier.

The senate is breathing easier now and genuine joy is abroad in the camp. For two or three weeks the confirmation of Mr. Jones of Chicago has been before the senate and a number of senators who have been trying to stand with the president on all questions, have been figuratively sweating blood.

Mr. Jones was appointed to be a member of the new federal reserve board, and the president desired that he be made chairman of it. He is at Princeton man, a successful business man on a large scale, a personal friend of long standing of the president, who has the utmost confidence in his integrity and ability, and who was very anxious to have him at the head of the reserve board.

No Objection to Jones Personally.

Several of the senators, however, who are charged under the law with the responsibility of endorsing and confirming important appointments, believed that the president had made a serious mistake. While not urging any objection to Mr. Jones personally, they insisted that he had been schooled in the wrong sort of financiering to make a proper member of the reserve board, which is to control the finances of the country.

Mr. Jones, among other connections with big business, is a director in the International Harvester company, commonly known as the harvester trust. The harvester company, and, incidentally, Mr. Jones, is under prosecution by the United States government for violating the anti-trust laws, and Mr. Jones, it seems, while under investigation, declared that he had voted for the things criticised by the legal department of the government and saw no wrong in them.

In view of these things objection immediately arose to his confirmation. Some of the senators believed that however good a man Mr. Jones might be otherwise, his appointment to this particular place was "unthinkable" from a Democratic standpoint. Other and more numerous senators declared their intention to stand by the president in the matter, but privately confessed great discomfort in so doing, as they doubted whether their constituencies would view it in the same light as the president. So, when the appointment was withdrawn, there was undisguised relief and prospects of an earlier adjournment.

President's Will Suffers First Defeat.

In this matter the president's will has suffered its first defeat, so far as this congress is concerned, but important appointments are made "by and with the advice and consent of the senate," and it is not to be expected that the views of white house and senate will always coincide.

Many seem to think that, in the cool and dispassionate after-thought, so far as the Democratic party is concerned, the president will feel like calling those blessed who saved him from this appointment. The Washington Herald, referring to the matter editorially, says:

"The withdrawal of the nomination of Thomas D. Jones of Illinois as a member of the federal reserve board, has saved the president, and, in very large measure, the Democratic party. The president may feel annoyed just now, but the time will come when he will have occasion to thank those senators whose political wisdom led them to oppose the president's wishes.

"The Republican senators, although they would have been compelled to go upon record in opposition to Mr. Jones, would have been glad to have seen him confirmed. The moment the Democratic majority in the senate had acted favorably upon the nomination the west and northwest sections of the country would have been deluged with attacks on Mr. Jones' record. Now, however, all guns are spiked. An attack can be made upon the president for making the nomination, but the Democratic party cannot be held responsible for confirmation."

Anti-Trust Bills Being Pushed.

Since the removal of this obstacle to the working harmony of the majority, the senate has arranged to push the anti-trust bills and to consider them to the exclusion of other business until they are disposed of. This should enable it to pass these bills in a few weeks and adjourn perhaps early in September.

The river and harbor appropriation bill, which has been set aside until after the disposition of the anti-trust bills, will meet with some vigorous opposition and may be allowed to go over until next session.

MRS. VANSTEENBERGH HURT.

Crochet Hook Pierces Finger and Causes Severe Injury.

Mrs. Haroid VanSteenbergh suffered a peculiar and very painful injury yesterday afternoon. While crocheting, the steel hook slipped from her hand and stuck upright in the grass at her feet. As she stooped to pick it up the chair slipped and Mrs. VanSteenbergh was thrown forward, and in an attempt to save falling, she threw out her hand and struck the steel hook which penetrated her finger, causing a very painful wound.

ENGINEER INJURED.

Father of Maryville Girl Meets Second Bad Accident at Vandeventer.

James Blackwell, the father of Miss Mabel Blackwell, proprietor of the Parisian millinery store of this city, was injured Sunday at Vandeventer, Mo., the accident being the second to befall him within a few months.

Mr. Blackwell is one of the oldest and best known engineers on the Wabash. Several months ago his leg was injured in such a way that amputation was necessary. As soon as he was able, he returned to work and Sunday while attempting to throw a switch in the railroad yards at Vandeventer, his foot slipped and he was thrown to the ground with considerable violence, catching his right arm in such a manner as to break it. He was given medical treatment and hurried to his home in St. Louis.

SECOND DAY OF CONVENTION.

Larger Crowd That First Day—Closes This Evening.

The second day of the county Sunday school convention at Burlington Junction opened today with a larger crowd in attendance than yesterday. The most intense interest has been taken in the convention, and there is as many visitors present as Sunday school pupils and delegates.

The feature of the morning program was an address on "Possibilities of Organized Classes," by the Rev. J. D. Randolph, pastor of the Buchanan Street Methodist church. Rev. Randolph has attracted the attention of schools all over the state by organizing the Wage Earners class and its plan of work.

The remainder of the morning was taken up with the hearing of reports and routine work. The presentation of the banner to the school having the highest per cent of its enrollment in attendance will be made this evening at the close of the convention.

Motion pictures of the convention were taken by Ralph Marcell of Maryville, who will also visit the stock farm of C. D. Caldwell tomorrow and take movies of the farm and herd.

FORMAL OPENING

PUBLIC RECEPTION WILL BE GIVEN AT REST ROOM AUG. 1.

WILL LAST ALL DAY

Club Women Invite Every Man, Woman and Child in County to Be Present Saturday.

After a year of hard work on the part of the club women of Maryville in creating interest, making plans and raising funds, and several months' work of the carpenters, plumbers and decorators, the city rest rooms in the court house will be formally opened Saturday, August 1, with a public reception.

Everyone in Nodaway county is invited to attend the opening of these rooms. This invitation includes the men, as well as the women and children, that they may see and better understand what the rest rooms will mean to the women of the county.

The reception will begin at 9 o'clock in the morning and last all day. Committees of women from the General Federation of Women's Clubs will be on duty all day to meet the visitors and show them the rooms. Music and other entertainment will be provided during the reception.

That the women of the county are interested in the new rest rooms has been evident for the last two weeks from the number of them who have visited the court house just to inquire about them. They have all seemed well pleased with the rooms after inspecting them.

The rest rooms are in the basement of the building and may be entered by two doors. One of these doors is on the south side of the main first floor corridor, the first door east of the county court room. The other door is at the southeast corner of the building, and gives entrance to the room from the outside.

Much time, labor and thought has been expended upon the rest rooms in order that nothing necessary for the comfort of their patrons should be lacking. They will be about as complete as they can be made. They are light, well ventilated and cool, supplied with comfortable furniture, toilets, lavatories and drinking fountain. They will be open to the women of the county as a home-like place in which to rearrange their toilet, eat their lunches, write letters, rest a quiet hour and leave their small children while they do their shopping. Mrs. Smith Casteel will be matron of the rooms to look after the comfort of everyone.

After a visit in Maryville of a couple of days with Mr. Lippman's mother, Mrs. Lizette Lippman, and his brother and sister, Leroy Lippman and Mrs. Fred French, the visitors will start on the return trip to St. Louis.

COMMITTEEMEN

TOWNSHIP MEMBERS TO BE ELECTED NEXT TUESDAY.

MEET HERE AUGUST 11

John M. Dawson Will Run Again—W. F. Phares and John Sewell Not in Race For Re-Election.

At the primary election next Tuesday, the county committees of the Democratic, Republican and Progressive parties will be selected. A member of each committee will be elected from each of the fifteen townships.

At the bottom of each ballot will be found a space in which the voter is to write the name of the person he would like for committeeman of that township.

Each county committee, composed of the various township committeemen, will meet at the court house in Maryville Tuesday, August 11, and organize by electing a chairman, secretary and treasurer. The chairman so elected shall become a member of the party congressional, senatorial and judicial committee of the district. The congressional committee is to meet Tuesday, August 18, at which meeting two members of the state committee will be chosen.

John M. Dawson of Maryville is chairman of the Democratic county committee. His friends are urging him to run for the committeemanship from Polk again, and Mr. Dawson has consented to do so.

Will F. Phares is the chairman of the Republican county committee. He is not a candidate again for the place. There are several Republicans being talked of as possible committeemen—J. F. Hull, W. R. Tilson and J. S. Shinabargar.

Of the Progressive party committee, John Sewell is the chairman. As Mr. Sewell is a candidate for representative on that ticket, he will not seek the office of committeeman again.

It is being predicted by nearly all of the leaders that the vote Tuesday will be very light. While there are several close contests among the candidates, especially on the Democratic ticket, yet many voters are going to stay at home and work. If the primary is to be made effective every voter should go to the polls.

L. C. Cook of Maryville is one of the members of the Democratic state committee from the fourth congressional district. Mr. Cook will probably be re-elected by the congressional committee.

The state committee of each party, composed of two members from each congressional district, will meet at Jefferson City on the second Tuesday of September for the purpose of organizing, and then will meet with the party nominees for state officers, congressmen, state senators, representatives, and formulate a state platform for their party.

Lyceum Committees Appointed.

Dean George H. Colbert, president of the Maryville Lyceum association, today appointed the committees on general management and sale of tickets. The general management committee is composed of Supt. W. M. Westbrook, chairman; Mrs. D. J. Thomas and W. R. Jackson. The committee on the sale of tickets is the Rev. Robert L. Finch, chairman; the Rev. S. D. Harkness and Prof. P. O. Landon.

On Northern Lake Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Roseberry and daughter will leave the first of next week for Conrath, Wis., to visit Mrs. Roseberry's aunt, Mrs. John Tate, for a time, after which they will go for a stay of several weeks at the northern lakes. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Jeanette Tate of Liberty, Mo., who is visiting now at the home of her son, M. G. Tate, and family.

Cooler Weather Prophecy is True.

When Uncle Sam prophesied last week that a cool wave would begin in this section of the country today, he guessed right. A steady breeze began last night and has kept up today, holding the thermometer down to 91.

If the second part of the prophecy, that local rains will fall throughout the Missouri valley, comes true, everyone will be satisfied.

THE WATER PLANT

BOARD HAS $6,500 WITH WHICH TO DEVELOP SUPPLY.

MAY DIG WELLS SOON

S. G. Gilliam Says Something Must Be Done to Prevent Recurrence of Last Three Years' Shortage.

For the third consecutive summer Maryville faces a water shortage. This time it is with the new power plant and dam completed. This condition, together with the work of straightening the river, is causing many persons to wonder and ask just what can or will be done to relieve the situation. Last night a representative of The Democrat-Forum went to S. G. Gilliam, chairman of the board of public works, with the question and his reply is this:

"The board now has some money which it put aside from the bond issue to meet just such a condition as the present one. This money, together with the surplus earnings of the company, gives us a fund of about $6,500 with which to try to develop a larger water supply."

Speaking for himself and from the general opinion of the board members as he gathers it from their informal discussions, Mr. Gilliam says that unless rains come it is probable that the work of prospecting for a well supply will soon be started again. No official action as to this matter has been taken by the board yet, although it is a question of continual discussion.

Last year some money was spent in trying to develop a well supply of water, but the board's engineer advised that the work be stopped to further develop and purify the present supply. Because of this and the cost of laying some new mains, there is not so much money left on hand as the board has wished, but the present fund is large enough to furnish temporary relief if well water can be found. In as much as Hopkins is supplied with water from wells sunk near the river, it looks as if wells can be found here.

After the present situation is cleared up, something must be done to offer a permanent future relief. Mr. Gilliam thinks that the straightening of the river will lessen that supply, as both the channel water and the underground flow will drain away faster. He thinks a well supply is the only feasible plan, for he says that as closely as he can figure it a doubling of the reservoir capacity to store up the river water of winter and spring would give only a sixty days' supply.

Manager L. O. Denny of the water company, thinks that rains will come this week and relieve the present condition. However, the board of public works realizes that unless something is done the same condition is liable to re-occur every summer, and it is studying and planning the best way to make that impossible.

NATIONAL PRIZE AT LOCAL SHOW.

Secretary of Poultry Association Will Try to Secure Award for Fall Show

W. H. Crawford, state secretary of the American Buff Wyandotte club is in correspondence with the national association head in an endeavor to have the national cup prize in that class of birds given in connection with the Northwest Missouri Poultry Show in Maryville December 1 to 5. A cup is awarded by the National Association each year as a sweepstake prize in each state on Buff Wyandotte birds and this is given jointly with some of the district or state shows.

Last year at the poultry show, there were 62 Buff Wyandotte birds entered. This number was greatly in excess of any other single class and the secretary feels very confident of getting the state prize awards for the December show which will add considerable attraction to the event.

Must Stay Awake on Train.

Louisville—According to a court ruling it is not the duty of trainmen to wake up sleeping passengers.

Suit for damages had been filed against a railroad by a man who had been carried past his station.

The court holds that the train crew did all that was required in calling the station and stopping the train. For the man who occupies a berth in a pullman there would be cause for action in such a case.

ST. JOSEPH MARKET REPORT.

Reaction From High Prices in Fat Cattle Trade Sets in—Hogs and Sheep Lower.

Reaction from recently inflated values is noted in the fat cattle trade. Good to prime steers and high grade butcher stock has held up well, in fact such grades are selling right at the high time of the season, but the nondescript, half-fat, grassy stuff has all came in for a break.

Southwest grassers are running quite freely and dry weather is forcing in quite a little immature stuff from corn belt regions which is giving the market a rough edge on all but the really desirable cattle.

Some 1,098 lb. steers sold here today at $8.85, the best we have sold this week. Cows and heifers, except corn feds, are 10 @ 15c lower than late last week. Bulls show a moderate set-back

Calves are steady. Stockers and feeders in extra strong demand early last week, are now meeting a slow outlet and prices are anywhere from 25 @ 60c lower than a week ago. Demand has fallen off sharply as a result of the dry weather scare.

Hog market 5 @ 10c higher today, with top at $8.92½ and bulk of sales at $8.70 @ 8.85. These prices are 15 @ 20c lower than a week ago, when extreme high point of the year was reached. Receipts moderate and no important change in price is looked for in next week or two.

All sheep and lambs closed lower last week and under light receipts there has been only mild improvement this week. Best lambs are quotable at $7.75 @ 7.90; ewes, $4.25; fat wethers, $5.00 @ 5.50, and yearlings at $5.50 @ 6.00.

CONGRESSMAN WITHERSPOON'S ACT NEARLY CAUSED PANIC.

THE SENATE TROUBLES

Rushing to Finish Business—Rivers and Harbors Appropriation Bill Will Be Vigorously Opposed.

(By W. C. Van Cleve.)

Washington, D. C., July 25.—Samuel A. Witherspoon of Mississippi, came near starting a panic in the house membership a few days ago when it leaked out that he had refused to receive eighty some dollars due him as salary.

When Mr. Witherspoon came to congress, he was detained at home for four days closing up his private business. There is an old law, long since gone into harmless obscurity, which declares that any member absenting himself from the sessions of the house on private business shall not draw pay for the time he is away. The law has long since been disregarded and many perhaps were not aware of its existence, so when his action became known, Mr. Witherspoon did not know whether he would be in good standing or not.

Witherspoon Is a Modest Man.

He is a very modest man, and it developed that he had kept it a secret for a long time and was not attempting to embarrass his fellow members, so he was promptly forgiven. It served to remind the congress, however, that if the rule were rigidly applied some few of the members would have a very much reduced pay check.

The Senate Breathes Easier.

The senate is breathing easier now and genuine joy is abroad in the camp. For two or three weeks the confirmation of Mr. Jones of Chicago has been before the senate and a number of senators who have been trying to stand with the president on all questions, have been figuratively sweating blood.

Mr. Jones was appointed to be a member of the new federal reserve board, and the president desired that he be made chairman of it. He is at Princeton man, a successful business man on a large scale, a personal friend of long standing of the president, who has the utmost confidence in his integrity and ability, and who was very anxious to have him at the head of the reserve board.

No Objection to Jones Personally.

Several of the senators, however, who are charged under the law with the responsibility of endorsing and confirming important appointments, believed that the president had made a serious mistake. While not urging any objection to Mr. Jones personally, they insisted that he had been schooled in the wrong sort of financiering to make a proper member of the reserve board, which is to control the finances of the country.

Mr. Jones, among other connections with big business, is a director in the International Harvester company, commonly known as the harvester trust. The harvester company, and, incidentally, Mr. Jones, is under prosecution by the United States government for violating the anti-trust laws, and Mr. Jones, it seems, while under investigation, declared that he had voted for the things criticised by the legal department of the government and saw no wrong in them.

In view of these things objection immediately arose to his confirmation. Some of the senators believed that however good a man Mr. Jones might be otherwise, his appointment to this particular place was "unthinkable" from a Democratic standpoint. Other and more numerous senators declared their intention to stand by the president in the matter, but privately confessed great discomfort in so doing, as they doubted whether their constituencies would view it in the same light as the president. So, when the appointment was withdrawn, there was undisguised relief and prospects of an earlier adjournment.

President's Will Suffers First Defeat.

In this matter the president's will has suffered its first defeat, so far as this congress is concerned, but important appointments are made "by and with the advice and consent of the senate," and it is not to be expected that the views of white house and senate will always coincide.

Many seem to think that, in the cool and dispassionate after-thought, so far as the Democratic party is concerned, the president will feel like calling those blessed who saved him from this appointment. The Washington Herald, referring to the matter editorially, says:

"The withdrawal of the nomination of Thomas D. Jones of Illinois as a member of the federal reserve board, has saved the president, and, in very large measure, the Democratic party. The president may feel annoyed just now, but the time will come when he will have occasion to thank those senators whose political wisdom led them to oppose the president's wishes.

"The Republican senators, although they would have been compelled to go upon record in opposition to Mr. Jones, would have been glad to have seen him confirmed. The moment the Democratic majority in the senate had acted favorably upon the nomination the west and northwest sections of the country would have been deluged with attacks on Mr. Jones' record. Now, however, all guns are spiked. An attack can be made upon the president for making the nomination, but the Democratic party cannot be held responsible for confirmation."

Anti-Trust Bills Being Pushed.

Since the removal of this obstacle to the working harmony of the majority, the senate has arranged to push the anti-trust bills and to consider them to the exclusion of other business until they are disposed of. This should enable it to pass these bills in a few weeks and adjourn perhaps early in September.

The river and harbor appropriation bill, which has been set aside until after the disposition of the anti-trust bills, will meet with some vigorous opposition and may be allowed to go over until next session.

MRS. VANSTEENBERGH HURT.

Crochet Hook Pierces Finger and Causes Severe Injury.

Mrs. Harold VanSteenbergh suffered a peculiar and very painful injury yesterday afternoon. While crocheting, the steel hook slipped from her hand and stuck upright in the grass at her feet. As she stooped to pick it up the chair slipped and Mrs. VanSteenbergh was thrown forward, and in an attempt to save falling, she threw out her hand and struck the steel hook which penetrated her finger, causing a very painful wound.

ENGINEER INJURED.

Father of Maryville Girl Meets Second Bad Accident at Vandeventer.

James Blackwell, the father of Miss Mabel Blackwell, proprietor of the Parisian millinery store of this city, was injured Sunday at Vandeventer, Mo., the accident being the second to befall him within a few months.

Mr. Blackwell is one of the oldest and best known engineers on the Wabash. Several months ago his leg was injured in such a way that amputation was necessary. As soon as he was able, he returned to work and Sunday while attempting to throw a switch in the railroad yards at Vandeventer, his foot slipped and he was thrown to the ground with considerable violence, catching his right arm in such a manner as to break it. He was given medical treatment and hurried to his home in St. Louis.

SECOND DAY OF CONVENTION.

Larger Crowd That First Day—Closes This Evening.

The second day of the county Sunday school convention at Burlington Junction opened today with a larger crowd in attendance than yesterday. The most intense interest has been taken in the convention, and there is as many visitors present as Sunday school pupils and delegates.

The feature of the morning program was an address on "Possibilities of Organized Classes," by the Rev. J. D. Randolph, pastor of the Buchanan Street Methodist church. Rev. Randolph has attracted the attention of schools all over the state by organizing the Wage Earners class and its plan of work.

The remainder of the morning was taken up with the hearing of reports and routine work. The presentation of the banner to the school having the highest per cent of its enrollment in attendance will be made this evening at the close of the convention.

Motion pictures of the convention were taken by Ralph Marcell of Maryville, who will also visit the stock farm of C. D. Caldwell tomorrow and take movies of the farm and herd.

Guests at Epperson Home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Griffith of Pine Ridge, S. D., are visiting in Maryville with Mrs. Griffith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Epperson. Mr. Griffith was employed while here in the Crow photo studio and is now a teacher in the Indian school at Pine Ridge agency.

San Francisco Guest Leaves.

Mrs. S. G. Trescott of San Francisco, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allender, left Tuesday for Kansas City to spend a few days before going to her home.

FORMAL OPENING

PUBLIC RECEPTION WILL BE GIVEN AT REST ROOM AUG. 1.

WILL LAST ALL DAY

Club Women Invite Every Man, Woman and Child in County to Be Present Saturday.

After a year of hard work on the part of the club women of Maryville in creating interest, making plans and raising funds, and several months' work of the carpenters, plumbers and decorators, the city rest rooms in the court house will be formally opened Saturday, August 1, with a public reception.

Everyone in Nodaway county is invited to attend the opening of these rooms. This invitation includes the men, as well as the women and children, that they may see and better understand what the rest rooms will mean to the women of the county.

The reception will begin at 9 o'clock in the morning and last all day. Committees of women from the General Federation of Women's Clubs will be on duty all day to meet the visitors and show them the rooms. Music and other entertainment will be provided during the reception.

That the women of the county are interested in the new rest rooms has been evident for the last two weeks from the number of them who have visited the court house just to inquire about them. They have all seemed well pleased with the rooms after inspecting them.

The rest rooms are in the basement of the building and may be entered by two doors. One of these doors is on the south side of the main first floor corridor, the first door east of the county court room. The other door is at the southeast corner of the building, and gives entrance to the room from the outside.

Much time, labor and thought has been expended upon the rest rooms in order that nothing necessary for the comfort of their patrons should be lacking. They will be about as complete as they can be made. They are light, well ventilated and cool, supplied with comfortable furniture, toilets, lavatories and drinking fountain. They will be open to the women of the county as a home-like place in which to rearrange their toilet, eat their lunches, write letters, rest a quiet hour and leave their small children while they do their shopping. Mrs. Smith Casteel will be matron of the rooms to look after the comfort of everyone.

COMMITTEEMEN

TOWNSHIP MEMBERS TO BE ELECTED NEXT TUESDAY.

MEET HERE AUGUST 11

John M. Dawson Will Run Again—W. F. Phares and John Sewell Not in Race For Re-Election.

At the primary election next Tuesday, the county committees of the Democratic, Republican and Progressive parties will be selected. A member of each committee will be elected from each of the fifteen townships.

At the bottom of each ballot will be found a space in which the voter is to write the name of the person he would like for committeeman of that township.

Each county committee, composed of the various township committeemen, will meet at the court house in Maryville Tuesday, August 11, and organize by electing a chairman, secretary and treasurer. The chairman so elected shall become a member of the party congressional, senatorial and judicial committee of the district. The congressional committee is to meet Tuesday, August 18, at which meeting two members of the state committee will be chosen.

John M. Dawson of Maryville is chairman of the Democratic county committee. His friends are urging him to run for the committeemanship from Polk again, and Mr. Dawson has consented to do so.

Will F. Phares is the chairman of the Republican county committee. He is not a candidate again for the place. There are several Republicans being talked of as possible committeemen—J. F. Hull, W. R. Tilson and J. S. Shinabargar.

Of the Progressive party committee, John Sewell is the chairman. As Mr. Sewell is a candidate for representative on that ticket, he will not seek the office of committeeman again.

It is being predicted by nearly all of the leaders that the vote Tuesday will be very light. While there are several close contests among the candidates, especially on the Democratic ticket, yet many voters are going to stay at home and work. If the primary is to be made effective every voter should go to the polls.

L. C. Cook of Maryville is one of the members of the Democratic state committee from the fourth congressional district. Mr. Cook will probably be re-elected by the congressional committee.

The state committee of each party, composed of two members from each congressional district, will meet at Jefferson City on the second Tuesday of September for the purpose of organizing, and then will meet with the party nominees for state officers, congressmen, state senators, representatives, and formulate a state platform for their party.

Lyceum Committees Appointed.

Dean George H. Colbert, president of the Maryville Lyceum association, today appointed the committees on general management and sale of tickets. The general management committee is composed of Supt. W. M. Westbrook, chairman; Mrs. D. J. Thomas and W. R. Jackson. The committee on the sale of tickets is the Rev. Robert L. Finch, chairman; the Rev. S. D. Harkness and Prof. P. O. Landon.

Cooler Weather Prophecy is True.

When Uncle Sam prophesied last week that a cool wave would begin in this section of the country today, he guessed right. A steady breeze began last night and has kept up today, holding the thermometer down to 81.

If the second part of the prophecy, that local rains will fall throughout the Missouri valley, comes true, everyone will be satisfied.

THE WATER PLANT

BOARD HAS $6,500 WITH WHICH TO DEVELOP SUPPLY.

MAY DIG WELLS SOON

S. G. Gillam Says Something Must Be Done to Prevent Recurrence of Last Three Years' Shortage.

For the third consecutive summer Maryville faces a water shortage. This time it is with the new power plant and dam completed. This condition, together with the work of straightening the river, is causing many persons to wonder and ask just what can or will be done to relieve the situation. Last night a representative of The Democrat-Forum went to S. G. Gillam, chairman of the board of public works, with the question and his reply is this:

"The board now has some money which it put aside from the bond issue to meet just such a condition as the present one. This money, together with the surplus earnings of the company, gives us a fund of about $6,500 with which to try to develop a larger water supply."

Speaking for himself and from the general opinion of the board members as he gathers it from their informal discussions, Mr. Gillam says that unless rains come it is probable that the work of prospecting for a well supply will soon be started again. No official action as to this matter has been taken by the board yet, although it is a question of continual discussion.

Last year some money was spent in trying to develop a well supply of water, but the board's engineer advised that the work be stopped to further develop and purify the present supply. Because of this and the cost of laying some new mains, there is not so much money left on hand as the board has wished, but the present fund is large enough to furnish temporary relief if well water can be found. In as much as Hopkins is supplied with water from wells sunk near the river, it looks as if wells can be found here.

After the present situation is cleared up, something must be done to offer a permanent future relief. Mr. Gillam thinks that the straightening of the river will lessen that supply, as both the channel water and the underground flow will drain away faster. He thinks a well supply is the only feasible plan, for he says that as closely as he can figure it a doubling of the reservoir capacity to store up the river water of winter and spring would give only a sixty days' supply.

Manager L. O. Denny of the water company, thinks that rains will come this week and relieve the present condition. However, the board of public works realizes that unless something is done the same condition is liable to re-occur every summer, and it is studying and planning the best way to make that impossible.

NATIONAL PRIZE AT LOCAL SHOW.

Secretary of Poultry Association Will Try to Secure Award for Fall Show.

W. H. Crawford, state secretary of the American Buff Wyandotte club is in correspondence with the national association head in an endeavor to have the national cup prize in that class of birds given in connection with the Northwest Missouri Poultry Show in Maryville December 1 to 5. A cup is awarded by the National Association each year as a sweepstake prize in each state on Buff Wyandotte birds and this is given jointly with some of the district or state shows.

Last year at the poultry show, there were 62 Buff Wyandotte birds entered. This number was greatly in excess of any other single class and the secretary feels very confident of getting the state prize awards for the December show which will add considerable attraction to the event.

Must Stay Awake on Train.

Louisville—According to a court ruling it is not the duty of trainmen to wake up sleeping passengers.

Suit for damages had been filed against a railroad by a man who had been carried past his station.

The court holds that the train crew did all that was required in calling the station and stopping the train. For the man who occupies a berth in a pullman there would be cause for action in such a case.

ST. JOSEPH MARKET REPORT.

Reaction From High Prices in Fat Cattle Trade Sets in—Hogs and Sheep Lower.

Reaction from recently inflated values is noted in the fat cattle trade. Good to prime steers and high grade butcher stock has held up well, in fact such grades are selling right at the high time of the season, but the nondescript, half-fat, grassy stuff has all came in for a break.

Southwest grassers are running quite freely and dry weather is forcing in quite a little immature stuff from corn belt regions which is giving the market a rough edge on all but the really desirable cattle.

Some 1,098 lb. steers sold here today at $8.85, the best we have sold this week. Cows and heifers, except corn feds, are 10 @ 15c lower than late last week. Bulls show a moderate set-back

Calves are steady. Stockers and feeders in extra strong demand early last week, are now meeting a slow outlet and prices are anywhere from 25 @ 60c lower than a week ago. Demand has fallen off sharply as a result of the dry weather scare.

Hog market 5 @ 10c higher today, with top at $8.92½ and bulk of sales at $8.70 @ 8.85. These prices are 15 @ 20c lower than a week ago, when extreme high point of the year was reached. Receipts moderate and no important change in price is looked for in next week or two.

All sheep and lambs closed lower last week and under light receipts there has been only mild improvement this week. Best lambs are quotable at $7.75 @ 7.90; ewes, $4.25; fat wethers, $5.00 @ 5.50, and yearlings at $5.50 @ 6.00.

NEXT EXCURSION TO VALENTINE VALLEY, TEXAS, TUESDAY, AUGUST 4.

In a letter from Mr. Gingrich July 16, he states that crops are fine, that on July the fourth they had three inches of rain and a good rain on the 15th. Everything looking fine. Corn is laid by and that he has planted nearly every thing you could think of and its doing fine and his suggestion to us is tell my friends up there that they should come down and look at the country, that its fine. That its a good stock country and no one can lose, but bound to make money. That its a fine stock country and anything you plant takes hold.
